

CHAPTER 8 Agreement

Agreement of Pronouns with Antecedents

A pronoun agrees with its antecedent in number and gender.

EXERCISE On the line provided, write the antecedent for each underlined pronoun.

EXAMPLE: Everyone decided to wear his or her jeans on Friday.

Everyone

1. Arthur will wear his corduroy jeans. _____
2. Sallie's mother won't allow her to wear jeans. _____
3. She will wear her denim skirt. _____
4. We also thought we would wear our checked shirts. _____
5. Patrick and Harry will wear their plaid shirts. _____
6. Everybody agreed to wear his or her bandanna. _____
7. Won't Miss Russell be surprised to see her class dressed in western clothing? _____
8. She said her lesson would be on square dancing. _____
9. One of the girls said she would wear boots. _____
10. One of the boys mentioned that he had a cowboy hat. _____
11. Carolyn was the one who told us the plan. _____
12. Rick called to say he would be late. _____
13. Either Bryan or Fred will play his harmonica. _____
14. Julie and Melanie will bring their guitars. _____
15. Has Glenn picked out the songs he will sing? _____
16. Quinton said he could make a lasso. _____
17. We won't be able to use the record player because its needle is broken. _____
18. We're glad Donna will bring her cassette player. _____
19. All the girls will fix their hair in braids. _____
20. We will long remember our terrific square dancing class. _____

HBJ material copyrighted under notice appearing earlier in this work.